FOSTER WANTS HIGH OFFICIAL TO DEFEND HIM IN LOCAL COURT

Writes A Letter To Attorney General Price, Asking Him To Be His Attorney

Charles Foster, indicted on a charge of burglary, attempted to send a letter this morning to Attorney General John G. Price of Columbus, in which he requested the attorney to come to Mt. Vernon to defend him. Foster asked the attorney general to send someone from his office if he could not come in person. The letter is now in the possession of Sheriff Mosholder.

TWO COUNTY BOARDS MEET IN THE CITY

The Knox county board of education held a meeting in the office of the county superintendent of schools Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The board agreed unanimously to transfer the Fairview school district of the Howard township rural district to the Howard rural school district for school purposes. This will materially increase the tax duplicate of the Howard rural district and be an additional incentive for them to continue their efforts for a first grade high school.

The yearly meeting of the members of the various village and rural boards of education of Knox county was held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Mt. Vernon, last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Anna M. Beverly, the Knox county Red Cross nurse, was present and gave a very interesting report of her findings while visiting the rural and village schools of Knox county, as well as the city of Mt. Vernon.

Prof. T. Howard Winters, of the department of public instruction, Columbus, gave in a very instructive manner the advantages of a county normal school. Many questions were discussed in an informal way at this meeting, including the workings of the new school finance bill, a scale of salaries for teachers, teachers' contracts, conveying of pupils, janitor service, etc.

There were more than 90 members present who participated in the discussions, not including clerks of various boards or visitors.

STARTER AT RANDALL TO BE AT CO. FAIR

F. D. Woodland Is Obtained As Official Starter At Knox Co. Fair

The starter for the races at the Knox county fair has, as a general rule, been a good official, but for this year one of the best starters in the country has been secured. He is Mr. F. D. Woodland of Cleveland, connected with the racing at Randall and a man well known over the country as a good starter. Woodland was secured by Mr. H. M. Patterson of the fair board. Mr. Patterson considers the local society very fortunate in securing Woodland's services for he is a real starter and one that is very much in demand.

WOOL GROWERS ARE HOLDING MEETING

Cooperative wool association members of Fredericktown are having their opening day today. County Agent S. L. Anderson went to Fredericktown this morning to preside at the opening ceremonies. Wool will be taken care of this year under a new set of rules and regulations and far greater satisfaction is assured the grower who deals with the cooperative concern.

BOY SCOUTS REALIZE $150 FROM TAG DAY

Tag Day, Saturday, for the Boy Scouts was very successful. The organization made many times the amount they set for their goal and are delighted to find themselves in a position, financially, to purchase the full amount of equipment necessary to carry out their work the coming year.

They are grateful for the support given them by the citizens. More than $150 was taken into the treasury from the sale of tags. In addition to the first equipment that they will be able to buy, they are now in the field for an outfit of pup tents for their organization, which will make their hikes a real pleasure.

ARREST ROBERTS ON TWO CHARGES

Wanted Here For Forgery; Also Wanted On A Charge Of Desertion From Army

Sheriff Mosholder and Deputy Sheriff Lytle arrested William Clifford Roberts of this city in Newark Sunday evening.

Roberts is wanted in Mt. Vernon on two charges, that of forgery and being a deserter from the United States army.

It is alleged that Roberts forged the name of his mother to four checks, one on G. R. Baker & Co., William Scribner, R. W. Pitkin, and Lavey & Morton.

Sheriff Mosholder has also received word that Roberts is wanted in Camp Taylor, Kentucky, on a charge of desertion. According to officers of the camp, Roberts was granted a furlough and failed to return to camp at the expiration of his leave of absence. The sheriff stated this morning that a charge of forgery would probably be filed against Roberts sometime during the day.
